

DANISH JAZZ DISCOGRAPHY 1945-2000

Edited by Erik Raben • (March 2023) Available at www.jazzdiscography.dk

INTRODUCTION

This discography covers Danish jazz music recorded 1945-2000.

The Detailed Discography lists all known information on the recordings, i.e. personnel, recording date, titles recorded and the issues.

The Detailed Listing of Issues has information on the issues (LP/CD names etc.) – followed by the year of recording.

An overview of some of the most relevant issues is found in the Selective Listing of Issues.

The above mentioned listings are separate .pdf documents and the Adobe search functions can therefore be used to locate specific musicians, issues etc.

The discography was edited by Erik Raben (erik.raben@mail.dk).

General information

A jazz discography has to be based on a broad view of what can be considered as jazz. This means that some of the recordings included will not be considered as jazz by all readers. On the other hand there may be recordings some readers think should be included – but which are not. Gospel and distinct blues recordings are not included.

The discography includes recordings by Danish musicians, groups and bands and recordings by a foreign musician who is co-leader or soloist with a Danish musician, group or band (in this case the recording is listed in the section related to that musician, group or band). Foreign musicians accompanied by a "permanent" Danish group or band are listed under that group or band. A consequence of this is that a recording by a foreign soloist can appear several times in the Detailed Listing of Issues.

However a few foreign musicians – who have been an important part of the Danish jazz scene during a longer span of time – are included; only their recordings relating to Danish jazz are listed i.e. not solo recordings or recordings entirely with foreign musicians.

LP/CD titles as well as the titles played are generally written with initial capital letters – except for titles in Scandinavian languages.

It has to be remembered that this discography – like most other discographies – is not faultless!

Rufus	Fontana(Eu)681.013ZL
Crepuscle With Nellie	—
Trio	—
Sound Barrier (Cisum)	—
Wo Wo (Hoppin')	—

Note: The above titles are generally listed as recorded at the same session as the "Rufus" LP (Fontana(Eu)681.014ZL) – i.e. August 23, 1963. According to Tchicai Don Cherry was late for the session – therefore the five titles on the "Rufus" LP were recorded without Cherry; when Cherry arrived the above titles for the "Consequences" LP (Fontana(Eu)681.013ZL) were recorded. The two records however have different sound characteristics – suggesting different sessions.

When Don Cherry started recording he was playing a pocket-cornet (which he named a pocket-trumpet) but later he changed (at least for some years) to a full-sized cornet. On most recordings his instrument is listed as pocket-trumpet; this discography lists the instrument as cornet (cnt).

All titles on SLP36 and SLP51 – except "Trio" – also on Enlightenment(E)EN4CD9165 (CD).

Note: The correct title is prob. "Sound By Yore"; it is not the same composition as "Sound Barrier" (rec. August 23, 1963).

The two takes of "Ezz-thetic" are not listed as specific tracks on the LPs and CDs; "Ezz-thetic" (take 1) follows "Trio" on SLP51 and "Ezz-thetic" (take 2) follows "Mik" on SLP36.

"Mik" was the title listed on the original issue (SLP36); later issued as "Mick".

Note: The Storyville session file lists that the above session was recorded – and mixed – November 10-14, 1987. It has however been verified, that Tchicai recorded November 14, 1987 in Zürich and that Danstrup was playing in Jutland with Jan Kaspersen's group November 10-13, 1987. Danstrup did play with Tchicai's group November 25-29, 1987 (November 27-29 in The Netherlands). Therefore it seems unlikely that the above titles were recorded November 10-14, 1987.
